

Environmental Policy

Hanes Industries is committed to environmental excellence through a defined management system focused on objectives and targets that are used to enhance our processes, products and services.

This is achieved through a dedicated team committed to continual improvement, compliance with legislation and pollution prevention.